

Galerie VIVID

Having relocated to The Red Apple (see p065) in 2010, VIVID's Saskia Copper and Aad Krol continue to do as they've done for decades: showcasing and selling the best in contemporary Dutch design and conceptual art by hosting a number of exhibitions a year. Whatever VIVID may be displaying, be it furniture, ceramics or the witty yet wholly useable products and household objects for which the Dutch are renowned, it's worth a browse. Hella Jongerius, Richard Hutten, Jurgen Bey and local studio Minala-Maeda (first solo exhibition, left) are among those to have been represented here. The gallery has also travelled overseas, most recently to design fairs in Basel and Miami, and, in 2014, VIVID celebrated its 15 year anniversary with an exhibition at the Kunsthal (see p078). Closed Mondays. Scheepmakershaven 17, T 413 6321, www.galerievivid.com
